PURIM

The word Purim is a Persian word that means lots. It was lots that were used to determine the day of death for God's people. Purim is the story of Esther. A book in which God's name is concealed because it is never mentioned. The people of the L-ord were about to be destroyed by one man's evil plan but through the faithfulness of Esther and Mordecai, God used these people to save a nation.

God may be concealed and we may not see Him openly, but still He is there -- guiding, directing and steering life to joy in an often bleak and frightening world.

Whatever the circumstances, He is always here with us.

Lets bring this time in with the joy of celebrating His love and Salvation.
